

HE'S SO ORIGINAL

John Scalici is a major drummer

“I have the world’s best job,” says John, “And I created it.” John is a drum circle facilitator and founder of Get Rhythm—an interactive drumming program that encourages teambuilding. Though John is a skilled musician, he’s not a music teacher. “I’m creating a sense of community, teaching about respect and communication.” After pursuing a musical career in Memphis, John moved home and drummed up the idea for Get Rhythm as a way to translate his passion for drumming into a livable career. John is a firm believer that everyone has rhythm.

“No matter how big or small, everyone has a voice that makes up the group song. Basically, my job is bringing people together.

I love that I’m using the drum as a tool to create community.” Read more at birmingham.skirt.com

What’s your favorite thing about reading skirt!? Reading about all the women who rock in our city of Birmingham.

What’s the best thing about wearing a skirt? Knowing that my wife let me borrow her tutu!

Photo by Anna Mazurek